(e) The right to an opportunity for a hearing to challenge the content of records

(f) If any material or document in the record of a student includes information on more than one student, the right to inspect and review only that portion of such material or document as relates to that particular student or to be informed of the specific information contained in such part of such materials.

§43.8 Destruction of records.

This part does not prevent educational institutions from destroying any records, if not otherwise prevented by law. However, access shall be granted under §43.5 before destroying student records where the parent or eligible student has requested access. Only records which are no longer relevant or necessary may be destroyed, subject to §43.23(c).

§43.9 Procedures for granting access.

Each educational institution shall establish appropriate procedures for granting a request by parents for access to the records of their children, or by eligible students for access to their own records within a reasonable period of time. In no case shall access be withheld more than forty-five (45) days after the request has been made.

§ 43.10 Right to challenge.

Each educational institution shall give parents of students and eligible students, who are or have been in attendance at the institution, an opportunity to challenge the content of the student's records to:

- (a) Insure that the records are not inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise violating the privacy or other rights of students.
- (b) Provide an opportunity for correcting or deleting any inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate data in the record
- (c) Insert into such records a written comment by the parents or eligible students pertaining to the content of such records.

§43.11 Informal proceedings.

Educational institutions may attempt to resolve differences with the parent of a student or the eligible student regarding the content of the student's records through informal meetings and discussions with the parent or eligible student.

§43.12 Right to a hearing.

Upon the request of the educational institution, the parent, or eligible student, a hearing shall be conducted under the procedures adopted and published by the institution. Such procedures shall include at least the following elements:

- (a) The hearing shall be conducted and decided within a reasonable period of time following the request for the hearing.
- (b) The hearing shall be informal and a verbatim record of proceedings will not be required. Interpreters will be utilized when necessary.
- (c) The hearing shall be conducted by an institutional official or other party who does not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing.
- (d) The parents or eligible student shall be given a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the issues raised under §43.10.
- (e) Within a reasonable period of time after the hearing ends, the hearing official shall make his recommendation in writing to the head of the educational institution. Within 20 days after receipt of the recommendation, the head of the institution shall issue his decision in writing to the parent or eligible student.

§43.13 Right of appeal.

If any parent or eligible student is adversely affected by the decision of the head of the institution, that party shall have appeal rights as given in 25 CFR part 2. However, each official decision shall be issued within 30 days from receipt of the appeal.

§43.14 Consent.

Educational institutions shall not permit access to or the release of student records or personally identifiable information contained in them, other than directory information of students, without the written consent of the parents or of an eligible student, to any party other than the following:
